Declaration

Whereas, classified employees (Education Support Professionals) in Utah's forty school districts - men and women working in student transportation, teacher/instructional assistant positions, daily maintenance of school property, custodial operations, child nutrition, secretarial services, warehousing, and media services perform invaluable services in the education of Utah's public school students;

Whereas, these school employees spend time and energy improving their professional work skills;

Whereas, Utah classified school employees have a positive record of high performance and efficiency in their work;

Whereas, the education of Utah's young people is one of the most noble objectives of our society; and

Whereas, the efforts of Education Support Professionals are vital to the education of our young people and we recognize these valuable employees for their positive contributions to our public schools;

Now, Therefore, I, Gary R. Herbert, Governor of the State of Utah, do hereby declare November 18, 2009, as

Education Support Professionals Day
